Other Department Discussion:

Public Services Director Ryan Miller updated the Council regarding the fabric structure located at Public Services. This structure is currently in very poor condition and it is anticipated this is the final year it can be used. It is currently used to store equipment. Council Member Strnad asked what the plan was if it were to fail this winter. Miller stated they have plans to utilize other buildings on the property to store any diesel equipment and store non-diesel equipment outdoors. Neighboring businesses have also been contacted.

Police Chief Joe McHale introduced Administrative Manager Shellene Gray. Gray then presented Goal 4 of the Marion Police Department's Strategic Plan. Goal 4 is to work together with other city departments to advance public safety and fiscal responsibility. Data Analyst Sunshine McDonald and IT Manager Terrell Hunter also spoke in regards to the goal.

City Engineer Mike Barkalow provided an update to Council regarding the Tower Terrace Master Road Corridor Management Plan.

Mayor AbouAssaly adjourned the meeting at 7:06 p.m.
